

Brittany Stidd | Full Stack Software Engineer

Portland, OR | 541-480-2890 | bc.stidd@gmail.com | GitHub | LinkedIn

I am a full stack software engineer with a passion for people. My previous career as an anesthesia assistant has given me an advantage as a developer in that I am detail-focused, driven, personable, and capable of producing consistently excellent work both in a team setting and independently. I am able to thrive most when I create products that are simple yet impactful to the community.
